

Speaker of the House of Representatives welcomed the Chairperson of the Committee on Children, Youth, Women, Older Persons, Persons with Disabilities, Ethnic Groups, and LGBTQs and team and the Chairperson of the Committee bestowed upon him by the white ribbon, on the occasion of the month of Ending Violence against Children and Women

11 November 2021

On Thursday 11th November, 2021 at 8:00 hrs., at office of President of the National Assembly, 10th Floor, Parliament Building, H.E. Mr. Chuan Leekpai, Speaker of the House of Representatives, welcomed Hon. Mrs. Mukda Phongsombat, Chairperson of the Committee on Children, Youth, Women, Older Persons, Persons with Disabilities, Ethnic Groups, and LGBTQs and team. Speaker of the House of Representatives also received the white ribbons from the Committee representatives, on the occasion of the month of Ending Violence Against Children and Women. The world community utilizes the white ribbon as a symbol of awareness for the campaign, which aims to eliminate all forms of violence against children, women, and domestic violence. On this occasion, Mr. Somboon Uthaiwankul, Secretary to Speaker of the House of Representatives, also attended.

Violence against women is one of the most common global problems arisen across the world. It is one of the embedded problems for a long time. The United Nations has declared 25th November, to be “the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women”. In Thailand, the Cabinet passed a resolution on 29th June 1999, that November every year would be known as the month for the end of violence against children, woman, families, communities, and all forms of social violence.as the month for the end of violence against children, woman, families, communities, and all forms of social violence.

As the legislative body, which is responsible for children and women, the Committee on Children, Youth, Women, Older Persons, Persons with Disabilities, Ethnic Groups, and LGBTQs, realized the problems of violence against children and women in all forms, both action and speech, both online and offline. Therefore, it shall demand for all people to be aware of the problem of violence against children and women, and to be a part of power expression to end the problems, by not accepting, not ignoring, and not committing violence in any forms and anywhere of violence, both physical and mental violence.
